The core values of the club are in tandem with the values that a Master of ceremony is expected to display: commitment, discipline and sincerity. The core idea behind the formation of this association is to identify individuals who are passionate about anchoring, train them in the various aspects such as public speaking skills, presentation skills, body language, vocabulary, humour, etc. and produce individuals who can Master any ceremony.

Centre for Employability and Corporate Relations (CECR)

The Centre for Employability and Corporate Relations (CECR) helps students in career planning through career counseling wherein they gather information about themselves in terms of their interests, aptitudes and abilities so that they can choose their careers more effectively. The Centre allows individuals to explore the world of employment and helps them to move from a general occupation direction to a specific one. Through the Career Plan form, CECR will know the exact headcount looking for final placements, going for higher studies (India & Abroad) and planning to become entrepreneurs. The Career Plan exercise will be followed by separate training programs for students opting for Final Placements, higher studies and planning to start up their own business.
