"THE SECRET TO SUCCESS IS PASSION": DR D SUBBARAO INSPIRES AT 52ND VICHAARMANTHAN HOSTED BY KRISTU JAYANTI COLLEGE

Kristu Jayanti College organised the 52nd edition of 'Vicharmanthan' on April 1, 2025. 'Vicharmanthan', is an interactive session with global and Indian visionaries to emphasize the importance of leadership skills in changing landscapes of employment and education. Chief guest, Dr D Subbarao, Former Governor, Reserve Bank of India, Former Finance Secretary, Government of India and Former Secretary to the Prime Minister's Economic Advisory Council, expressed his views on empowering society through community engagement programmes.

During his speech, Dr D Subbarao aimed to provide words of encouragement and expressed the need for employable graduates. He stated multiple anecdotes from his experiences as a governor and working under prominent authorities. While reminiscing about his civil service interview, he stated, "The secret to success in life is to do whatever you want with passion". He shed light on the need to keep up with current affairs and stay in touch with reality. He drew attention to responsible leadership by speaking of the historical exploitation of tribal communities. He also highlighted the significance of understanding tribal sociology and their dependence on non-tribal sources for aid in variable aspects. Furthermore, he highlighted the need for effective time management by stating "You are never too busy to do what is important" while recalling Indira Gandhi's address during the initial days of his career. He emphasised on the poignant role of character and personality in shaping personal development. The session aimed at attaining a comprehensive understanding of how to adapt to changing fields and meet the stakeholder standards. Through this session Dr D Subbarao offered his insights on leadership, time management, robust productivity and personal development.
