marks National Constitution Day

BENGALURU, DHNS: The Kristu Jayanti School of Management observed National Constitution Day with a reading of key sections from the Constitution.

Justice Budihal RB, the keynote speaker, highlighted the historical genesis of the Constitution, the contributions of its framers, and critical articles shaping its framework, including Articles 75, 352, 356, 360, and 375, said a press release.

Justice Budihal also presented case studies illustrating constitutional violations and judicial verdicts that reinforced constitutional principles, the release added.

The event was attended by Aloysius Edward J, Dean of the Faculty of Commerce and Management, and Joseph Charles D, Head of the School of Management, along with other dignitaries.
