

Business Standard October 18, 2024

Business Standard

KRISTU JAYANTI SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT ORGANISED A 'TRIBUTE TO PADMA VIBHUSHAN RATAN N TATA'

The Kristu Jayanti School of Management organised a heartfelt tribute to the legend, Padma Vibhushan Late Ratan N Tata, remembering the life and legacy of one of India's most respected industrialists on October 10, 2024 through its innovative learning platform, Student Knowledge Enrichment Programme (SKEP). The event, filled with reflections on his journey and contributions, was attended by faculty members and MBA students of the school, with Ms Ushus Ans Shaji, student panel member extending a warm welcome. The panel for the event included students of the first year MBA, Ms Alona Shaji, Mr Syed Zuhaib, Ms CH Venkata Sai Sarvani, Ms Sania Elizabeth Sony, and Mr Joel Thomas Ninan. The discussion began with an overview of Mr Ratan Tata's early life, his upbringing, and his education, tracing the roots of the values and principles that shaped him into the man he became.

The insightful session shed light on how, from a young age, Mr Tata exemplified integrity, resilience, and an unwavering commitment to serving society. The panellists offered deep insights into his life, acknowledging the obstacles he faced and how he navigated them with remarkable presence of mind, humility, and a positive outlook.

The panellists also delved into his entrepreneurship, innovations, and his deep involvement in launching the Tata Nano, a symbol of his commitment to ensuring that every Indian household had access to comfort and safety. His contributions to research and development were another important aspect of his legacy that the panel praised. A short video was played during the program, taking the audience through the milestones of Mr Tata's life, and emphasising how his personal hardships and challenges shaped him into one of the most influential figures in modern India. The tribute ended with a moment of silence, honouring the legacy of Late Ratan N Tata. Dr D Joseph Charles Tamilmaran, Head, the School of Management, concluded the event with words of encouragement, urging the audience to look up to Mr Tata's life as an example of leadership, resilience, and selfless service. The event served as a poignant reminder of Mr Ratan Tata's lasting impact on the world and inspired all attendees to carry forward his legacy of innovation, compassion, and integrity.

Campus Reporter:
Ms Krithi Jignesh Shah

