

Kristu Jayanti College, BBMP partner for cleanup drive

BENGALURU, DHNS

Kristu Jayanti College (Autonomous) organised a garbage blackspot cleaning and painting drive in collaboration with the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) as part of the 'Swachhata Hi Seva 2024-Garbage Free India' initiative on Monday.

The drive aimed to revitalise a one-kilometre stretch in BBMP ward 25 through the efforts of student volunteers.

KR Puram MLA Basavaraj BA inaugurated the event by painting a mural on a compound wall, joined by Fr Dr Augustine George, Principal of Kristu Jayanti College; KN Ramesh, Zonal Commissioner of Mahadevapura Zone; and Dakshayini, Joint Commissioner of Mahadevapura Zone. Commending the initiative,

KR Puram MLA Basavaraj BA (centre) addresses college students and staff. SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

Basavaraj said, "I've seen many alumni from this institution become invaluable contributors to society, which I deeply admire. When my health officer informed me about this event, I felt a genuine sense of curiosity and excitement, especially as this road leads to the international airport."

The event was held as part of the Jayantian Extension Services and included a rally promoting the importance of cleanliness and a greener India. Students cleaned the entire K Narayanapura Road and its surrounding areas, making a visible impact on the community.