

The Hindu October 27, 2024

Kristu Jayanti College Hosts Humantra 2024: A Celebration of Interdisciplinary Learning

Kristu Jayanti College's Department of Social Sciences and Languages organised its annual intra-collegiate fest, "Humantra 2024" with the subject "Antarvishay Aayaam: Interdisciplinary Dimensions". Chief Guest Mr. Manjunath Nayaker, a well-known Indian actor and public relations professional best recognized for his part in Malgudi Days, kicked off the event. The festival's goal is to promote overall academic improvement through multidisciplinary involvement. He reflecting on his own experiences, he urged the audience to value life's journey, saying, "We are often so focused on our destination or the pursuit of success that we forget to enjoy life along the way". In his presidential address, Fr. Dr. Lijo P Thomas, VP and CFO of KJC, underlined the importance of such events in providing students with a forum to demonstrate their abilities while studying many aspects of their chosen subjects. "A fest like this gives you the opportunity to excel in the field of your choice by exploring different dimensions". "Humantra 2024" establishes the framework for a series of events and academic conversations aimed at fostering intellectual progress and creativity. Highlights of the festival include "Character Spotlight" by the Department of History, "Trivia Trek" by the Department of Sociology, "Politics on Canvas" by the Department of Political Science, and "Timeline Tapestry"

---