

Students of Kristu Jayanti College reenact The Merchant of Venice play

A scene from the play

With the theme of love, loyalty, mercy, revenge and bringing out the truest form of human nature, the students of Kristu Jayanti College staged Shakespeare's The Merchant of Venice. Organized by the department of English and the Erudite Club, the play consisted of 67 members, put in different teams, who worked hard for several days to make the play a success.
