

Vol. 4 Issue:1

Pixel

AUGUST
2019

Kristu Jayanti College Department of Journalism & Mass Communication [PG] Photography Magazine

CARNET DE ROUTE

BLOSSOM MART

Story credit: Joyce Joyson

Krishna Rajendra market is like a flowerbed. It is Asia's largest market, full of colours, vigour, vibrance and sprited. The market starts hustling from morning, 2am and lasts till 8 am. This market is called city market and is located in the heart of the city. It is simply a wonderland for photography enthusiast. Farmers from nearby area, everyday come and sell the fresh marigold, jasmine, roses, lilies. The air is filled with sweet smelling fragrance of flowers. A must visit place before a pompous wedding and ecstatic festivities.

WREATH OF FLOWERS

ISO: 2500
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/60
APERTURE: f/2
PHOTO CREDIT: SENORITA

FUSCHIA BLOOMS

ISO: 8000
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/60
APERTURE: f/9
PHOTO CREDIT: MALAVIKA

ISO: 8000
APERTURE: f/9
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/60
PHOTO CREDIT: MALAVIKA

SYMMETRY AT WORK

ISO : 3200
 SHUTTER SPEED : 1/125
 APERTURE : f/7.1
 PHOTO CREDIT : DIXITH SUMA

CURB FOR YOUR CRAVINGS

EDITORIAL

Bengaluru offers some of the great and thrilling sightseeing destinations, that will take you on a caravan of the epicurean expedition.

The true spirit of Bengaluru lies in its sprawling streets. The city is a melting pot of different ideas, cultures, and ethnicity that has shaped it to its present stature.

Sizzling, succulent grilled kebabs, tender tikkas, wraps, rolls are appetizing, irresistible and is a crowd-puller. Vada pav is quite loved in Bengaluru, which is served with gunpowder chutney and fried chilies. They are great for high-time tea. The north Indian delightful parathas are a perfect meal for mid night cravings. Chaats like dahi puri, aloo chaat and papdi chaat are yum-yum to taste. Indeed, the food has a blast of flavours and is a treat for your eyes.

The metropolitan has many landmarks to see such as Vidhana Soudha, Bangalore Palace and Iskon temple which are an architectural jewel and have a mind boggling effect on your sense.

The city is a home to numerous lakes and natural water surfaces. Some of the popular ones are Ulsoor lake, Hebbal lake and Sankey tank.

Bengaluru is famously known as 'city of garden' and embraces parks such as Cubbon park and Lalbagh. The sheer beauty of the place, entices the people to pay a visit.

INDEX

SCENIC SPOTS	4
CITY LIFE	6
MONUMENTS	8
CUISINE	12
BLOSSOM MART	15

ISO: 160
 APERTURE: f/2.8
 SHUTTER SPEED: 1/60
 PHOTO CREDIT: SENORITA

Tandoori Nights

ISO : 200
 APERTURE : f/2.8
 SHUTTER SPEED: 1/60
 PHOTO CREDIT : SENORITA

RELISH THE DEEP FRIED CHICKEN WITH SUITABLE SAVOUR OF CURRY LEAVES

ISO: 100
 SHUTTER SPEED: 1/125
 APERTURE: f/7.1
 PHOTO CREDIT: SENORITA

SCENIC SPOTS

Story credit: Joyce

Make up your mind, lighten up a little as the week goes by. Hush towards the picturesque sites such as Akkayamma Betta, Cubbon Park, Hebbal lake and Lalbagh is impressive to look at. Cubbon park is a lush green lawn and is famously called as 'the lungs of Bengaluru'. Under the canopy of trees, one can breathe into the deep serenity and peace that prevails there. Lalbagh offers a souvenir to be stored away in heart forever. You should steel your time out of your schedule to pay visit to Hebbal lake, a place of refreshing waters. Not to forget the breathtaking view from the top of Akkayamma Betta which is a memorable affair to indulge in.

CUISINE

Story credit: Joyce
 Head to the streets of Shivajinagar and Kammanahalli, to have the lip-smacking street food from across India, in Bengaluru. Dive into the flavors of tandoori cuisine. Try the Royal Mughlai Seekh Kebabs, marinated with a mix of chilly ginger pickle and is cooked in tandoor. Be prepared to pamper your taste buds with an array of tandoori treats like mutton biryani, beef kebabs, chicken rolls, shawarama and keema samosas. The tangy flavor and the subtle smokey aroma of the Mughlai version delicacies are mouth-watering. You will definitely end up eating a little too much.

ISO : 200
 APERTURE : f/4
 SHUTTER SPEED: 1/60
 PHOTO CREDIT : JOYCE

PAMPER YOUR TASTEBUDS

ISO :200
 SHUTTER SPEED : 1/60
 APERTURE : f/2.5
 CAMERA : CANON I300D
 PHOTO CREDIT : SENORITA

Royal Repast

ISO: 1600
 SHUTTER SPEED: 1/65
 APERTURE: f/5.6
 PHOTO CREDIT: SENORITA

FORGED INTO DARK

ESCAPE INTO THE LAP OF NATURE

ISO: 400
 APERTURE: f/5
 SHUTTER SPEED: 1/400
 PHOTO CREDIT: GOPINATH

MIRRORED SERENITY

ISO : 1000
 APERTURE : f/8
 PHOTO CREDIT : GOPINATH

ISO : 800
 APERTURE : f/10
 PHOTO CREDIT : SENORITA

GLASS CASA

CITY LIFE

Story credit: Kalashree

Commercial Street is a one-stop destination to get all your shopping done, ranging from shoes to cars, jewelleries and antiques, garments and hosiery. It is one of the oldest streets in the city. Commercial street is shopper's paradise. The street is crowded and one must be prepared to walk a lot and huge range of shops gives ample opportunity for bargainers to enthrill their skill. once done with the shopping refresh and treat yourself with delectable food items.

ISO: 100
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/250
APERTURE: f/8
PHOTO CREDIT: SENORITA

Story credit: Joyce

Chruch street is a stretch of 715 meters. It is always humming, hectic, and lively. It is well- known spot where people usually gather to ring in the New Year. The street has undergone a major transformation over the years from being a place lined-up with caritas to commercial heart of the city.

ISO: 400
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/400
APERTURE: f/6.3
PHOTO CREDIT: SENORITA

MOSAIC OF GRAPHICS

ISO: 500
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/80
APERTURE: f/2
PHOTO CREDIT: MALAVIKA

DIVINE BLISS

Story credit: Malavika

Sri Radha Krishna Temple, famously known as the ISKCON temple is one of the largest ISKCON temples in the world. It was opened in 1997. It has a huge cultural complex. It is dedicated to lord Krishna. The structure of this remarkable shrine, has the elements of traditional South-Indian with contemporary style of architecture

Story credit: Malavika

The Bengaluru palace was constructed by the founder of Bengaluru, Kempe Gowda in the 1530s. The breathtaking architecture of the fort was initially built out of mud and later replaced by stones. The marvellous beauty stands strong with monumental gates and awe-

ISO: 100
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/200
APERTURE: f/7.1
PHOTO CREDIT: GOPINATH

ROYAL RESIDENCE OF REGAL

ARCHITECTURAL MARVEL

Story credit: Malavika
The Dravidian architecture of Vidhan Soudha was built in 1956. The facet architecture attracts the onlookers. The foundation stone was laid by the then Prime Minister of India, Jawaharlal Nehru. It serves as the seat of the state legislature of Karnataka.

ISO: 380
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/2000
APERTURE: f/5.6
PHOTO CREDIT: DIXITH SUMA

ISO: 400
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/500
APERTURE: f/11
PHOTO CREDIT: SENORITA

Story credit: Malavika
Sir Seshadri Iyer Memorial Library or the State Central Library in Cubbon Park is nothing short of iconic. It can be instantly recognized with the bright brick red wall.

European architecture splendor where the human intellect is shaped

ISO: 400
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/1000
APERTURE: f/6.3
PHOTO CREDIT: GOPINATH

A PARADISE FOR BARGAINERS

ISO: 3200
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/125
APERTURE: f/7.5
PHOTO CREDIT: DIXITH SUMA

HOLDING ON TO A MONOTONOUS LIFE

ISO: 1600
APERTURE: f/6.3
SHUTTER SPEED: 1/400
PHOTO CREDIT: SENORITA

Unsurpassed in grandeur

India is known for its rich culture. Monuments are one of the ways in which the culture is preserved. Bengaluru, despite being a urban city, is immensely rich in its culture.

Majestic monument is set against the backdrop of white fluffy clouds

ISO : 400
SHUTTER SPEED : 1/2000
APERTURE : f/6.3
PHOTO CREDIT : GOPINATH