Youth needs to be the instruments of change in India : Justice Santosh Hegde

“We live in a society that respects money and power, over the pure and simple trait of honesty,” said Hon. Justice Santosh Hegde, Former Judge of the Supreme Court of India, during an interactive session with the Law College students held on 1 August, 2017 in Kristu Jayanti College. The session was organized by the College of Law to provide the students an opportunity to have an industry exposure and network with the professionals. The Chief Guest, Justice Hegde emphasized on the society at present being power and wealth driven, as the competition is to either be rich or have power. “I was a frog in the well; I didn’t know the sufferings of the people even though I was under an institution representing the constitution, the government,” added Justice Hegde, regretfully as he educated the students about all the evil perils happening in the society. Furthermore, he enlightened the youth, to be the instruments of change and how it is important that we become a society that boycotts the corrupt. He also highlighted humanity and contentment to be the two most important values that have been suppressed by greed.

As a citizen you need to understand that the wealth is not a product of sin. Study, work and pay your taxes, be satisfied with what you legitimately earn. By giving a brief report of scams that have occurred in India over the years he urged the students to be alert and act wisely. He lamented over the sufferings of the patients in government hospitals and opined, “India was never like this, back then our elders used to talk with emotion. The government was for the people, by the people and of the people.” The country requires leaders with values and responsibilities. Kareena Mannah a first year from BBA LLB proposed the Vote of Thanks and expressed her gratitude for the session.

Workshop on professional attitude development

A workshop on professional attitude development was organized on the 31 July 2017 at MBA Conference Hall, for the first year MBA and PGDM students. Prof. Anthony Williams, Professor of Zeal Institute addressed the students and shared his experience which he earned after contributing 30 years into the corporate field. The attitude development workshop is a step towards building a better and more amalgamated set of corporates who tend to contribute the society with an apt attitude.

Inauguration of College of Law

Kristu Jayanti College of Law, affiliated to the Karnataka State Law University, and approved by the Bar Council of India was inaugurated on 31 July 2017. The College of Law offers the students with the options of BBA LLB, B.Com LLB and BA LLB. The program commenced with the lighting of the lamp followed by readings from the Rig Veda, a Surah from the Quran and a reading from the Bible.

Rev. Fr. Josekutty PD, Principal of Kristu Jayanti College, enlightened the students by giving a glimpse of the history of law and the position of the legal field at present. He also affirmed that “the commencement of a new department in our college is recognition of quality of search and academic delivery, which is a result of many peoples’ dreams, vision and hard work”.

When he asked about the future ideals and aims of the new found Law Department, Prof Mohan Rao Bolla, Principal of Kristu Jayanti College of Law said, “According to the Canadian Committee of legal research, a law school is not only a teaching institution, it also includes a core of advanced students and faculty members along with research and legal literature for the creation of a dynamic and just society. This is the ideal that the department will be carrying forward in order to help the students achieve their goal.”
