

A Conclave to spiral the Indo-Israel Relations

In celebration of 25 years of diplomatic relations between India and Israel, the Indo-Israel Conclave 2017 was organized by the School of Management, Kristu Jayanti College in association with the Indian Economic Trade Organization (IETO) and Indo-Israel Friendship Society on September 6, 2017 at Kristu Jayanti College. The Chief Guest of the day, Her Excellency Dana Kursh, Consul

General, In Israel Consulate in Bangalore delivered the keynote address. "It is a great honor to be a part of this esteemed dais that has members from the fields of academia, business, politics and spirituality. This convergence is the essence of Indo-Israel ties because both our nations celebrate unity in the midst of astounding diversity." The conclave was also presided by Prof. K.S Rangappa, Chief Scientific Advisor, Sinotar Pharmaceutical in Bangalore, Mr. Asif Iqbal, President of Indo-Israel Friendship Society, Shri Appaji M.J, Member of Karnataka Legislative Assembly, Rev. Fr. Josekutty PD, Principal of Kristu Jayanti College, Rev. Fr. Augustine George Vice Principal. Mr. Asif Iqbal delivered an enlightening presentation on the importance of celebrating 25 years diplomatic relation between India and Israel.

According to Asif Iqbal last year an increase of 26% can be observed in tourists visiting in India from Israel and in last seven months 34 thousand people visited Israel from India. Government is planning to start direct flight to Israel from Bengaluru and Delhi. Prof. K.S Rangappa addressed the students and shared his experience with Israel. In Israel all of them live in peace and harmony.

"Ideology of forming Agriculture and technology are the powerful tool of our country, technology should implement in every corner of our country for the prosperity of our nation," said K.S Rangappa. Students should look forward for the better world to live and ready to take up the risk. Committed young dynamic generation can change the world; the future of our country will depend on the young generation.

Demonetization, What Next: Shri. R.S. Gandhi

The thirty fourth edition of 'Vicharmanthan' an interaction with global visionaries was organized by Kristu Jayanti College, Bangalore on August 31, 2017. Shri. Rama Subramaniam Gandhi, the Former Deputy Governor, Reserve Bank of India was the speaker for the day. Demonetization is withdrawing the values of currency notes issued by a country. It undermines the confidence of a nation and hence it is a rare action to be executed.

The process was earlier conspicuous post WWI and WWII in Germany. He mentioned that, it causes fear and havoc among citizens although the idea is to eradicate black money.

KJC organizes a weeklong celebration to honor teachers

The Literary and Cultural Association of Kristu Jayanti College organized the annual Teachers Day Celebration on 05 September 2017. Rev. Fr. Josekutty P.D., Principal, reminded the four qualities that good teachers possess namely dedication, commitment, accompaniment and determination. He appreciated all the efforts teachers. This was followed by a felicitation of flowers for all the teaching and non-teaching staff. The much awaited informal segment commenced soon afterwards. Several teachers came together and performed their talents ranging from melodious renditions of classical songs to power-packed dance performances. Regardless of their specific departments, the teachers combined their talents to dazzle and entertain their audience.

Model United Nations (MUN) at Kristu Jayanti College

The Model United Nations (MUN) was inaugurated in Kristu Jayanti College on September 1, 2017 by the Debate Society (DEBSOC), in collaboration with the Literary and Cultural Association of the college. Model United Nations is an simulation and an academic activity in which students can learn about diplomacy, international relations, and the United Nations. It involves researching, public speaking, debating and writing skills, in addition to critical thinking, teamwork, and leadership abilities. "It is a trail blazer event and a platform for enhancing and refining an individual's oratorical skills. It enables students to have clarity on issues of the society and help come up with possible solutions, which could bring about a big change," said Prof Susan Sanny, Faculty Coordinator of MUN. The students, better known as 'delegates', prepare draft resolutions, plot strategy, negotiate with supporters and adversaries, settle conflicts, and navigate the UN's rules of procedure, all in the interest of mobilizing 'international cooperation' to resolve problems that effect almost every country on Earth.
