

KJCmirror

Kristu Jayanti College Journalism and Mass Communication Department Students' Publication

The Criminal Justice System of India has collapsed: Shankar Bidari, IPS

Kristu Jayanti College of Law in association with Indian Economic Trade Organisation conducted a State level Conference on "Security for Prosperity" on October 07, 2017. Mr. Shankar Bidari, IPS, Former DG and IGP, Government of Kerala spoke about the relevance of the topic and how it has become an international importance. "Security prerequisite for prosperity and external security, which is responsible for the security of our country, left for the defence. Law should be effective and everyone should get justice if they deserve it and if anyone has done any crime, then he or she must be punished. But, unfortunately the criminal justice system of India has collapsed," he opined and also raised a question to the gathering "Can we call our nation as a civilized country?" that made everyone think for a while. "We need to build up the criminal justice system promptly which matters our countries security and the importance of dealing things the cyber security with security system so as to protect our country," he added.

Mr. Asif Iqbal, President of Indian Economic Trade Organisation talked about the importance of security for the prosperity of an individual when he precluded the conference. "As legal professionals we will be trusted, if we know about the security breaches and everyone is supposed to undergo security awareness programmes," he said. Security for better world and security issues for India's growth were the two main topics discussed. The sessions by various personalities including IPS, DCP, DIG, IGP, Human right commission and nuclear scientists.

National conference on Transmuting Women through Values and Well-Being

"This is your world. Please don't put yourself into a box of gender, family and society. Come out from those boxes," said Ms. Shazia sllan the Additional Director Engineers India. The Women Empowerment Cell conducted the fifth National Conference on Transmuting to handle everything. People talks about confidence but the important thing is basic integrity and how you keep it. Accept everything, the pain and struggle, it's all part of your life," Shazi added in her inaugural address.

Ms. Lilla Gourley, Manager, Audit services, Grant Thornton said that "Education is the key for all the success and it will take you out. If you have education then you will get money, more resources and you can easily help others. Keeping your perspective in mind stick to your dreams and then you should explore.

mi, who is a active Journalist, and a passionate woman who comes from a Muslim family, currently working as women through values and well-being on 12 October, 2017. "Transmute fear factor into confidence and be brave

Panel Discussion on Multi-Dimensional Perspective of Disability

Department of Social work organized a panel discussion on multidimensional perspective of disability on October 12, 2017. The session was moderated by Dr. A Thirumoorthy, Professor and Head Department of Psychiatric Social Work (NIMHANS). He mentioned about the sociological, psychological, legal aspects of disabled persons and how to effectively manage disabilities through medical and social changes. "We should give equal opportunities for people with disabilities and understand them," said Ms. Nimisha Jashnami, Principal Consultant -

Disability Inclusion, Diversity and Equal Opportunity, Bengaluru.

Jayna Kothani, The Executive Director, Centre for law and Policy Research, remarked the importance on the rights of individuals with disabilities, the job reservation in Government sector and also about the reasonable accommodation for them. Mr. Manoharan Ranganathan, Regional Coordinator of South India for Human Rights Defender Alert, spoke about the five principles of Human rights that are Irrevocable, Indivisible, Inherent, inalienable and universal."

50 per cent of disabled seats are vacant in India

Department of Social Work in association with CBM India Trust Organized a National Conference on 'Disability Management at Work: Problem and Prospects'. Dr. Himangshu Das, Director of National Institute for Empowerment of persons with multiple Disabilities (NIEPMD) Chennai was the Chief Guest. In India, there is one or two seats are reserved for the disabled in every government sector, unfortunately, 50 per cent of seats are vacant. These seats are vacant due to the absence of qualified professionals. There are several agencies organising educational programs and professional training for them but they are not coming forefront to accept it and make use of it. The society needs to be empowered to empower change the different abled individuals rather than discriminating them," said Himangshu.

Ms. Aparajita Dhar, Programme Director, CBM India Trust and Fr. Jockutty PD, Principal, Kristu Jayanti College, were also present along with 100 participants.

CALL FOR SHORT SUBMISSION

UGC - National University Film Making Competition
Theme : Create an even Awareness on Ragging amongst students

Deadline to submit to the College : November 15

First prize - Rs.5 Lakh

Second prize - Rs.3 Lakh

Third prize - Rs.2 Lakh