1st Step to Access Proquest

Url address: <https://search.proquest.com/>

click Log in through your Library to Access more

The screenshot shows the ProQuest search interface in a web browser. The browser's address bar displays "search.proquest.com". The ProQuest logo is in the top left corner, and a navigation menu is visible. A prominent banner at the top features a city skyline at night and a navigation bar with categories: "All", "Scholarly Journals", "Books", "Videos & Audio", "Newspapers", and "More". Below this is a search bar with the placeholder text "Enter search terms..." and a magnifying glass icon. A teal button at the top right of the banner reads "Log in through your library to access more features." Below the search bar, three white boxes provide additional resources: "Visit our company website" (with a person icon), "Looking for other products?" (with a laptop icon), and "Find support" (with a speech bubble icon). The Windows taskbar is visible at the bottom, showing the time as 4:36 PM on 9/9/2020.

Step 2 Click more access options

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the ProQuest search page. The browser's address bar shows 'search.proquest.com/#'. The ProQuest logo is in the top left corner. A modal window titled 'Find your library' is centered on the screen. The modal contains a search input field with a magnifying glass icon on the right. Below the input field, it lists examples: 'State University, university.edu, The Science Institute'. A link says 'Not affiliated with an institution? Find more information here.' A 'Helpful tip' states: 'in order to get full access, you need to be on campus or log in through your library so we know which institution you're from.' A button labeled 'More access options' with a downward arrow is at the bottom of the modal. At the bottom of the page, there are three icons: a ProQuest logo, a laptop with a magnifying glass, and two speech bubbles.

Step 3 Log in Username & Password

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the ProQuest search page. A modal window is open in the center, titled "Find your library or your university, organization or company". The modal contains a search input field with a magnifying glass icon, followed by example text: "Examples: State University, university.edu, The Science Institute". Below this is a link: "Not affiliated with an institution? Find more information here." A "Helpful tip" states: "in order to get full access, you need to be on campus or log in through your library so we know which institution you're from." The modal also features a "ProQuest Account" section with "Username" and "Password" input fields, both containing placeholder text "ProQuest username" and "ProQuest password" respectively. A "Log in" button is positioned below these fields. Underneath is the "Other access options" section, which includes links for "Use OpenAthens login", "Use your institution's local login", and "Use Clever login", along with a "Hide options" button. At the bottom of the modal, there is a link: "Having trouble? Contact support for assistance." The background of the browser shows the ProQuest homepage with a search bar and navigation menu. The Windows taskbar at the bottom indicates the time is 4:37 PM on 9/9/2020.

Step 4 Type Username: kristu_lib

Password: Pro@uest1

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the ProQuest search page. A modal window is open in the center, titled "Find your library or your university, organization or company". The modal contains a search input field with a magnifying glass icon. Below the input field, it lists examples: "State University, university.edu, The Science Institute" and a link "Not affiliated with an institution? Find more information here.". A "Helpful tip" states: "in order to get full access, you need to be on campus or log in through your library so we know which institution you're from.". Below this is the "ProQuest Account" section, which has a "Username" field containing "kristu_lib" and a "Password" field with masked characters ".....". A "Log in" button is positioned below the password field. Underneath is the "Other access options" section, which includes links for "Use OpenAthens login", "Use your institution's local login", and "Use Clever login", followed by a "Hide options" button with an upward arrow. At the bottom of the modal, there is a link: "Having trouble? Contact support for assistance.". The background of the browser shows the ProQuest homepage with a search bar and navigation menu.
