The day started at 8:00 AM, when the boy volunteers began their journey to Sonnenahalli village, after packing all the luggage, kitchen, and working implements as it was the last day of the camp. After arriving at the government hospital of Sonnenahalli, they were joined by the girl volunteers and Shramdhan commenced immediately. The eye camp team from Rangalakshmi Netralaya and the blood camp team from Rotaract Nexus led by Mr. Shashi shortly arrived. The two camps were set up in parallel rooms of the hospital building and were begun promptly. Several villages arrived for the eye checkup, where eye problems were detected, free spectacles were distributed and arrangements for free operations were made for the villages. A majority of the volunteers donated their blood for the good cause despite working in the Shramdhan activities.

Another highlight of the event was the guest lecture by Puneeth P.V, from the Department of Horticulture. This program, which was coordinated by Dhatri Patra Foundation, had its primary aim in the welfare of farmers. The woes and worries of farmers were addressed and solutions for them were suggested by the resource person. Information regarding the loans and sanctions for farmers by the government was circulated. The volunteers also coordinated and attended the program, which helps them to create awareness about the same in the future. Some of the NSS alumni also came to attend the event and interacted with the volunteers.

The guest lecture on health by Dr. Anjanappa TM was a major event of the day. He is an eminent gastroenterologist and international surgeon, and medical professor. He spoke about the importance of knowing some crucial health tips which could be instrumental in even saving a person's life. ASHA workers also attended the program, which was very informative, lively, and enriching.

The volunteers later came back to the campsite and packed every single implement, food item, and luggage. The food material was to be sent to Home of Hope, an NGO which has a close association with NSS. The volunteers left at 4:30 PM, ending a beautiful 6 days, of which the memories will surely be an unforgettable experience in their lives.

Brief write-up:

On this day, the 2nd of February, the volunteers woke up as early as 4:30am in the morning and were taken for a morning walk around the village. And later refreshed themselves with a cup of coffee and restored much needed energy with breakfast at 9:00am.

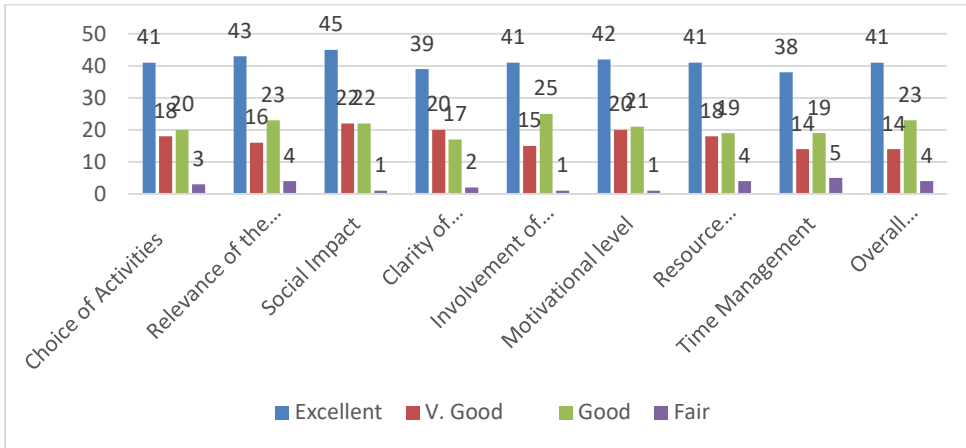

Later that day, after performing the everyday Shramadhan, volunteers were taken on a farm visit to a Flower farm, a Grape Vineyard, and were educated about the ways that the farmers there use to grow the crops, the benefits they get from certain crops, their profits and losses that they have to bear sometimes and everything about growing crops, fruits and vegetables. After that, volunteers helped on the construction of the Shed in the Govt. School that we had promised to build on behalf of Kristu Jayanti College, Autonomous in collaboration with Dhatri Patra. During these activities, volunteers learned about Team Spirit and how important it is to work together to get any work done.

After the lunch and some more shramadhan, volunteers were asked to prepare for Cultural performances for the evening. And so did the volunteers as directed, came together with their respective teams assigned and discussed amongst themselves about ways to entertain themselves for the evening, and started practicing as desired by their choices. As the evening progressed, the cultural began and volunteers started showcasing their talents in various segments such as singing, dance, drama, etc. Every member from each team took active part in the event and were successful in the task given that was to entertain themselves and others. ### WEBINAR ON OUR TIGERS' RETURN

COMMEMORATING WORLD WILDLIFE DAY - 2023

Date: 08/03/2023

Number of Participants: 115

Venue:

A1 auditorium

Objective: To inculcate the philia toward Wild Life conservation and comprehend the significance of Tiger Reserve and conservation activities.

Brief Write-up of the Programme:

The Centre for Environment & Sustainability organised a webinar on 'Our Tigers Return' on the 8th of March 2023 for students across all the deaneries to commemorate the World Wildlife Day. The Resource person of the day was Mr. Peeyush Sekhsaria, renowned geographer and writer. He is known for his conservation initiatives in the tiger reserves and documentation of the successful projects through illustrated books for children. The session began with a round of quiz about the interesting facts about Tiger population in India. The students were introduced to the alarming reduction level of tiger population in the remote forests due to illegal activities and hunting. He conversed primarily about the Panna Tiger Reserve which is located in Vindhyan Mountain range, Madhya Pradesh. The reserve serves as an abode to rich flora, fauna, and significant population of wild tigers. The reserve is also famous for its rich culture and heritage and home to several tribal communities. The reduction of tiger population distressed the native people and measures were drawn to regenerate their count. Mr. Peeyush demonstrated with pictures of how tigers were transported from nearing reserves for breeding and the ways in which the areas were familiarized for them for breeding purposes. The result of the operation amidst the hindrances was successful as the count of the tiger population is beyond 200 in the present time. During the talk he instilled activism in the students with lines like 'Then do something – who is stopping you'. The puppet video of the journey of tiger population increase was screened in the end, followed by few questions

Students Provide Warmth To Homeless With Clothing And Blanket Drive

In a heartwarming display of compassion and community spirit, a group of college students in the city has successfully raised funds through an integrity stall to distribute food, clothes, and blankets to the homeless in the city. The CSA student volunteers of Kristu Jayanti College were able to render support to more than 100 homeless families and individuals in the city through the drive. Sixty-year-old Muthamma who works in construction sites near Thannisandra opined that she sleeps on the floor on cardboard sheets and the clothes and blankets are highly helpful to her. "We created an integrity stall on campus featuring books, pens, pencils, and various art and craft items crafted by our volunteers. Anyone could choose what they needed and contribute whatever they could for this noble cause. The specialty of this stall is that there were no fixed prices. Students could pay whatever they thought was fair. This honesty approach got a lot of attention and support. We are overjoyed by the tremendous support from our fellow friends, who played a crucial role in making it a grand success. Even our alumni contributed to this meaningful initiative," opined Tara R, BCom student. A growing number of people, primarily migrant workers, are finding refuge under flyovers, bus stations, and footpaths. Domestic help and security staff often resort to temporary shelters, facing added challenges during winter. The creative initiatives by these students of Kristu Jayanti College bring much-needed warmth to those in need, offering comfort during their difficult times.

Brief Write Up:

The Department of English, Kristu Jayanti College (Autonomous), conducted an extension activity on Collaborations with a community programme titled Care And Connect: Connect To Care! The programme was scheduled between 03:00 pm to 04:30 pm. The primary objective of the effort was to cultivate empathy and comprehension among young individuals regarding the challenges faced by the senior population. Additionally, it aimed to foster respect and concern for the elderly while also encouraging active engagement with their experiences and perspectives. The primary motive was that elderly individuals require affection and care over material belongings. They merely needed a kind listener and assistance from the beginning. The day's events taught students the Seven Principles of Humanity and emphasized the significance of demonstrating compassion towards less privileged individuals. The student's visit to the elderly home left a lasting impression and imparted valuable lessons on fundamental human ethics. The activity was coordinated by Dr L. Santhosh Kumar, Assistant Professor of English and Dr Nishitha, Assistant Professor of English.

Cleanliness refers to the state of being clean, free from dirt, germs, and impurities. It is a fundamental aspect of personal, environmental, and public health. The main aim of cleanliness campaigns is to promote public health, prevent environmental pollution, creating a positive and attractive environment, Enhancing community engagement and improvising infrastructure.

The Ministry of Tourism, is the nodal agency for the formulation of national policies and programs and for the co-ordination of activities of various Central Government Agencies, State Governments/UTs and the Private Sector for the development and promotion of tourism in the country. The Indian government's introduction of "Sharmadan" on Swachhta Diwas (Cleanliness Day) during Gandhi Jayanti is a commendable initiative aimed at promoting cleanliness and civic responsibility. The participation of NCC cadets in this endeavor, capturing geotagged photos before and after cleaning a location, serves several important objectives. The primary objective of this activity is to instill a sense of civic duty and responsibility among the youth, in line with Mahatma Gandhi's principles of cleanliness and self-reliance. It aims to create awareness about the importance of maintaining clean and hygienic surroundings for the well-being of communities.

In conclusion, "Sharmadan" on Swachhta Diwas involving NCC cadets not only contributes to the government's cleanliness drive but also fosters a sense of responsibility, teamwork, and environmental consciousness among the younger generation. It is a step towards realizing Mahatma Gandhi's vision of a clean and self-reliant India. This initiative holds the promise of a cleaner, more responsible future for the nation.

Objective:

- To encourage the migrants to rely on safe and clean drinking water sources
- To educate migrants on water purification techniques and providing necessary skillset to purify the water.

Brief Write-up on the Programme:

Kristu Jayanti College, Bengaluru, a UNAI hub for SDG: Goal 1 in India, in commemoration of the international day for eradication of poverty, organized a two day campaign on #Sip right, live bright to educate the migrant laborers in the city on the necessity of utilizing clean water sources. The campaign which began on 16th October at multiple migrant settlements was concluded with a special orientation program for the migrant children on 17th October at 4.30. The campaign was an outcome of a remarkable endeavor undertaken by sixty postgraduate students of the college, in their ongoing efforts, to make a difference at the grassroots level. With a commitment to understanding, advocating, and initiating dialogue, these students have taken up the challenge of addressing the often-overlooked plight of internal migrants in India. Recognizing the complexity of poverty and migration in India, these students adopted a multifaceted approach that combines research, advocacy, and dialogue. In the preliminary stage, students conducted several researches to identify the core issues at different migrant settlements. "In our study, we delved into the portability of drinking water, and the findings are quite concerning. Shockingly, in our initial tests, most of the water samples we examined were contaminated," opined Ms. Sharon Mary, II-year MSc Microbiology student. The students' passion and commitment to their projects are not only a testament to the power of education but also a shining example of how young individuals can drive positive change in society. In the second phase, the students designed awareness campaigns based on the research findings. "In light of their extensive field observations and in commemoration of the International Day for the Eradication of Poverty, our students executed a campaign to empower the migrant laborers to access and effectively utilize safe and clean water sources. This initiative seeks to educate migrants on purifying water independently, by employing the sand filtration method & boiling or solar disinfection," opined Dr. Augustine George CMI, Principal, Kristu Jayanti College. Through live demonstrations, students explained to them the usage of each element and encouraged them to utilize these purifying mechanisms. The campaign also encouraged the participants to utilize the state government kiosks for drinking water, as the government takes utmost care in providing drinking water with affordable rates.

The campaign adhered to the key aims of SDG 1 No Poverty and SDG 6 Clean Water and Sanitation, which reiterated the need to work for the betterment of the underprivileged people in the immediate community by imparting them with knowledge and basic life skills.

Programme Impact:

The campaign provided 59 postgraduate students from various multidisciplinary backgrounds with a unique experiential learning opportunity. These students were empowered with knowledge and skills related to the water purification process. As a result of the campaign, the students successfully brought attention to this critical issue. The campaign encouraged migrants to choose reliable and uncontaminated water sources over potentially hazardous alternatives, thereby reducing health risks. The efforts of the students were recognised and publicised by two national dailies, several vernacular newspapers and in the UNAI hub newsletter, which highlighted the problems identified by the students and the solutions they proposed. This not only raised awareness but also showcased the impactful contributions of the students through the campaign.

Time	: 09:30 AM - 10:30 AM
Classes Attended	: KCDC volunteers
Venue	: K Narayanapura area

Objectives:

- To increase awareness about environmental sustainability and the importance of keeping public spaces clean.
- To reduce plastic pollution by focusing specifically on reducing plastic waste in the community by collecting, segregating, and appropriately disposing of plastic materials.

Brief Write up on the Programme:

On October 7th, Jayantian Extension Services in collaboration with the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahangara Palike (BBMP) organized a blackspot cleaning drive as part of their commitment to community service and environmental sustainability. The initiative aimed at removing waste and maintain the area near college, with active participation from the student body.

The volunteers were equipped with gloves, masks and waste collection bins ensuring safety and efficiency throughout the event. The primary emphasis was on the collection and segregation of dry waste, particularly plastic materials, which were prevalent along the roadside. Special attention was given to plastics due to their harmful impact on the environment and challenges in disposal. Separate bins were used for dry waste and plastic recyclables to facilitate further processing.

Throughout the clean-up process, the volunteers ensured that the waste collected was separated into appropriate bins, facilitating efficient disposal and recycling. Students meticulously gathered plastic bottles, wrappers, and other non-biodegradable waste, ensuring it was properly segregated from organic waste. The volunteer's thorough approach to waste segregation not only cleaned the area but also demonstrated the importance of proper waste management techniques. This effort aligned with the mission of reducing landfill waste and promoting recycling, making the drive both impactful and educational for all involved.

The event concluded with a reflection on the importance of consistent waste segregation practices to ensure a cleaner and more sustainable community.

Outcome:

The program was well received by the college students and the public which regarded the topic as a need of the hour domain for spreading awareness. Conducting anti-smoking campaigns has had a profound impact on public health and societal norms. These campaigns have effectively raised awareness about the severe health risks associated with smoking, such as lung cancer, heart disease, and respiratory issues, leading to a significant reduction in smoking rates across many countries. They play a key role in educating both adults and youth, often utilizing graphic warnings, testimonials, and public service announcements that reveal the dangers of tobacco use. By shifting social norms, our anti-smoking campaign have made smoking less socially acceptable, contributing to the creation of smoke-free environments in public places, workplaces, and homes. Additionally, these campaigns have influenced policy changes, such as smoking bans, increased tobacco taxes, and restrictions on advertising, all of which further discourage smoking. Overall, the impact of anti-smoking campaigns is seen in improved public health, reduced healthcare costs, and the gradual creation of a society that prioritizes healthier lifestyle choices.

Swachh Bharath Abhiyan

Date : 25/09/2024

Location : Kristu Jayanti College, Autonomous

Number of beneficiaries : -

Objective :

1. Primary aim is to clean up the streets, roads, and infrastructure of India's cities, towns, and rural areas.
2. The campaign focuses on proper waste management, encouraging people to sort their garbage into dry and wet waste, and promoting recycling.
3. It aims to improve public health by reducing diseases caused by poor sanitation. Students, citizens, and communities are encouraged to participate actively in keeping their surroundings clean.

Brief Write-Up About The Program:

The Jayantian Extension Service, in collaboration with the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, organized a Swachh Bharat Abhiyan event at Kristu Jayanti College, Autonomous, aimed at promoting awareness about cleanliness and the significance of maintaining hygienic surroundings. This initiative is part of a nationwide campaign launched by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on October 2, 2014, with a vision to create a cleaner, healthier India.

The objectives of the campaign include eliminating open defecation by constructing toilets, ensuring efficient waste management systems, and maintaining cleanliness in public areas. It also focuses on fostering hygiene awareness among citizens and encouraging active participation in cleanliness efforts. A key goal of the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan is to achieve an open defecation-free (ODF) India and provide universal sanitation coverage by 2019, coinciding with the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi.

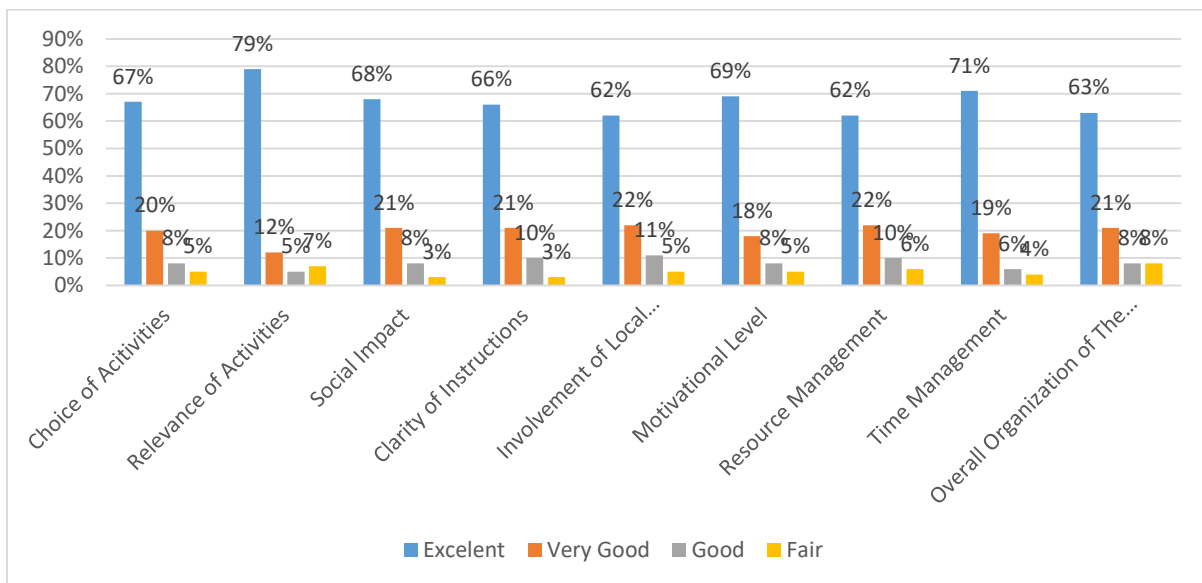

At Kristu Jayanti College, volunteers participated in the cleaning activity, contributing to the cleanliness drive on campus and raising awareness about proper sanitation. Teachers and student coordinators played a vital role in encouraging and assisting volunteers, ensuring the activity's success. Their collective efforts helped reinforce the importance of maintaining clean surroundings for the health and well-being of the community.

The event was a success, with significant engagement from the college community, furthering the objectives of the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan.

Impact Analysis:

1. Students and staff were educated about the importance of segregating waste into wet, dry, and hazardous categories. This led to better waste management within the campus, reducing the accumulation of mixed waste and promoting recycling.
2. One of the most notable impacts was the active involvement of students in cleanliness drives. Students volunteered for campus cleaning, tree plantation activities, and other cleanliness initiatives. Their direct involvement helped foster a sense of responsibility for the environment.

Venue: Bangalore

Objectives:

- Educate students about the importance of animal welfare and the challenges faced by stray dogs in the community.
- Engage students in hands-on activities that involve feeding and caring for stray dogs, creating a sense of community and shared responsibility.

Report on the Programme :

Youth Red Cross Wing of Kristu Jayanti College organized Dine the Paws on 2nd October on account of Gandhi jayanthi. To raise awareness about stray animals, feed them and for the welfare of stray animal.

In celebration of Gandhi Jayanti, the members of the Youth Red Cross at Kristu Jayanti College launched a heartfelt initiative aimed at supporting stray dogs in our community. Inspired by Mahatma Gandhi's values of compassion and service, we recognized the need to extend kindness beyond humans and to care for the voiceless animals around us. We encouraged our fellow students to join us in feeding stray dogs. To foster a sense of community and engagement, we created a Google form where participants could upload photos of themselves feeding the dogs, alongside their college ID cards. This not only helped track our collective impact but also built a visual testament to our commitment to animal welfare. Through this initiative, we aimed to remind everyone that every act of kindness counts, and that together, we can make a difference in the lives of those who depend on us, be they human or animal. As we reflect on our actions, we hope to inspire ongoing compassion and community service long after this day of celebration.
